

MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Operations

FROM: Executive Assistant to the DDCI

Executive Registry

85- 3064/2

Ed,

Could you fold into this answer, if you haven't already in some other form, an answer to the question about possibility of developing our own [redacted] capabilities. If you need more time because of personnel moves, etc., DDCI would like you to at least address the question, saying we're thinking about it or whatever. Thanx,

Date 7 August 1985

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Counterterrorism, Paramilitary and Narcotics Staff, DO

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Lessons Learned from Recent TWA Hijacking

I asked for a report on lessons learned from the recent TWA Hijacking. [] did a good job. His memo is attached. I would like for you to look at this and develop as soon as possible a report on what is happening and what the prognosis is for implementing these recommendations. Also attached is a similar report from Bob Gates.
